SECTION 1 — Dubai Real Estate Market Overview

Market Summary

Dubai is one of the world's most internationally invested real estate markets. The emirate has positioned itself as a global property investment hub, attracting investors from Europe, Asia, Russia, the Middle East, and Africa.

Dubai's real estate ecosystem benefits from:

- Investor-friendly regulations
- No property tax
- Strong rental demand
- Rapid infrastructure development
- Government-led urban planning
- Residency visa incentives tied to property ownership

The Dubai real estate market is regulated primarily by:

Dubai Land Department (DLD)
Real Estate Regulatory Agency (RERA)

These institutions ensure market transparency and investor protection.

Major Market Drivers

1 Economic Stability

The UAE maintains a stable economy supported by:

- Tourism
- Trade
- Logistics
- Aviation
- Financial services
- Technology investment

Dubai acts as the commercial capital of the Middle East.

---

2 Global Investor Demand

Foreign ownership laws allow international buyers to purchase freehold property in designated zones.

Key investor nationalities include:

- India
- UK
- Russia
- China
- Saudi Arabia
- Europe
- Africa

3 Population Growth

Dubai's population is projected to exceed 5.8 million by 2040.

Population growth drives:

- housing demand
- rental demand
- infrastructure expansion

4 Tourism Economy

Dubai receives 17+ million tourists annually.

This creates strong demand for:

- holiday homes
- Airbnb

SECTION 2 — Property Ownership Laws

Freehold Ownership

Foreign investors can purchase freehold property in designated areas.

Freehold ownership grants:

- full ownership rights

- resale rights
- rental rights
- inheritance rights

Leasehold Ownership

Leasehold properties typically allow ownership for:

10–99 years.

The land remains owned by the master developer.

SECTION 3 — Dubai Land Department (DLD)

Dubai Land Department is the official authority responsible for:

- property registration
- title deed issuance
- transaction regulation
- escrow monitoring

DLD Transaction Fees

Fee	Amount
DLD Transfer Fee	4% of property value
Admin Fee	~AED 4,000
Broker Fee	~2%
Mortgage Registration	0.25%

Escrow Accounts

For off-plan developments:

Developers must deposit buyer payments into RERA regulated escrow accounts.

Funds are released only as construction milestones are completed.

This protects buyers from developer default.
